KII CONSULTING PARTNERS WITH NBCC TO OFFER MEMBERS IDENTITY PROTECTION

The National Black Chamber of Commerce continues to look out for its members

Washington, DC, February 2019 —As the threat of identity theft continues to grow, the National Black Chamber of Commerce (NBCC) is offering a comprehensive identity protection and data breach program to all members. “We looked at what is out in the marketplace to help to proactively prevent and detect identity theft, and the options were overwhelming. KII Consulting looked at the needs of our members and found us the right solution”, said Charles H. DeBow, III, Vice President Programs.

On average there is 1 new fraud victim every second, and it takes an average of 330 hours to regain pre-theft identity status*. The NBCC program is delivering a breach recovery program to small businesses as well as an employee benefits offering. Kate Kortsch, President of KII Consulting commented, “it is a pleasure to work with NBCC, their commitment to their members makes it even more important that they have the right solution as it relates to data privacy and identity theft.”

The NBCC is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, nonsectarian organization dedicated to the economic empowerment of African American communities. The NBCC reaches 100,000 Black owned businesses. There are 2.1 million Black owned businesses in the United States. Black businesses account for over $138 billion in revenue each year according to the US Bureau of Census. The National Black Chamber of Commerce® is dedicated to economically empowering and sustaining African American communities through entrepreneurship and capitalistic activity within the United States.
